The Everlasting Light

*Those we love must someday pass beyond our present sight . . .
Must leave us and the world we know without their radiant light.*

*But we know that like a candle, their lovely light will shine
To brighten up another place more perfect . . . more divine.*

*And in the realm of Heaven, where they shine so warm and bright,
Our loved ones live forevermore in God's eternal light.*

EUGENE BARNETT: husband, father, son, brother, grand daddy, and friend, was the oldest of three children. He was born October 27, 1930 in Jackson County, Georgia. Graduated from Athens Industrial High School, he earned Bachelor Degrees from Albany State College (University) in Education and Physical Education and the Master of Science Degree in Administration from Florida A & M University.

He married his wife, Sara, and to this union was born two children: Reginald Keith, who preceded him in death, and Deidre Denise Ingram of Albany.

He leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Sara Barkley Barnett; two daughters: Deidre D. Ingram of Albany and Jacqueline (Richard) Allen of Atlanta; his two precious grandchildren, Regina Nacole Barnett and Jeremy Maurise Ingram; a brother and sister, Eddie Farris Barnett of Hollis, New York and Thedara Maxwell of Bogart, Georgia; special cousins, Charlie and Katherine Young of Leary, Georgia; extended family, Mrs. Doris Cross, Mrs. Henretta Benson, and Dr. and Mrs. Walter Judge; and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes, all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today,
While thinking of the many things, we didn't get to say.*

*I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand
That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,*

*So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.*

The Traveler

*He has put on invisibility. Dear Lord, I cannot see—
But this I know, although the road ascends
And passes from my sight,
That there will be no night;
That You will take him gently by the hand
And lead him on along the road of life that never ends,
And he will find it is not death but dawn.
I do not doubt that You are there as here,
And you will hold him dear.*

*Our life did not begin with birth,
It is not of the earth;
And this that we call death, it is no more
Than the opening and closing of a door—
And in Your house how many rooms must be
Beyond this one where we rest momentarily.
Dear Lord, I thank You for the faith that frees,
The love that knows it cannot lose its own;
The love that, looking through the shadows, sees
That You and he and I are ever one!*
